

P It Stands For Paddy

As I roved out on a May morning to take a pleasant walk,
I sat me down by an old oak tree for to hear two lovers talk,
To hear what they might say my dear to hear what they might say,
That I might learn a little more of love before I'd go away.

Chorus:

P it stands for Paddy I suppose J for my love John,
W stands for the false Willie O' but Johnny is the fairest one,
Johnny is the fairest one she said Johnny is the fairest one,
And I don't care what any body says for Johnny is the fairest one.

Come sit you down on the grass he said together on the green,
It's been a good three quarters of a year or more since together
we have been,
Sine together we have been my dear together we have been,
It's been a good three quarters of a year or more since together
we have been.

Chorus

I'll not sit down on the grass she said or be a lover of thine,
For I hear you're in love with another pretty maid and your hearts
no longer mine,
Your hearts no longer mine she said your hearts no longer mine,
For I hear you're in love with another pretty maid and your hearts
no longer mine.
